

RFQ 0613-237 - Amendment #2

Questions and Answers

KING COUNTY PARENT/CHILD VISITATION SERVICES

1. Can the director have 2 careers?
 - The program director may have two distinct jobs if the bidding organization can demonstrate that the program needs will be met and the program in compliance with its contract.
2. Is there a need that would keep them on the premises 24/7?
 - The program director need not be on the premises of the visitation facility 24/7.
3. Can this person be a CW?
 - A CA social worker is exempt from bidding on this contract as it is an ethics violation. Any non-CA social worker utilizing the services cannot bid for the contract as it is a conflict of interest.
4. When this contract is executed what will happen to the independent contractor's?
 - If this RFQ results in apparently successful bidders to manage the capacity needed, there will be a transition time from the current contracts to the apparently successful bidders.